Ok, the attorney and I are 1 conversation from finished with the MDP & ER comments you provided 2 weeks ago. Based upon the Holiday, it doesn't look like you'll be able to get the revised docs until Monday or Tuesday, however. Which is your 1st day back?

During our last review of the draft we agreed several times to talk separately for some clarifications. I'm not remembering exactly what sections of the docs that related to. How about I give you our draft revisions and we talk before I "formally re-submit"? For example, you said you wanted more steps in the ER assessment formula description and I can't recall exactly what you wanted there. Can you clarify this for me?

It will probably be helpful for us to do a quick "pre-review." If the docs are to you on Monday, we could talk Tuesday. Does that work for you?

Paul, I've very concerned about our timing. I'm not sure I see how we are going to complete Council action in time for County assessment collections unless we can get to final documents very quickly next week. How can we speed the 3rd revision along? I don't need to tell you that the City Clerk's Office needs less work, not more.

Thanks. Have a good Holiay if we don't talk before.
